

2020

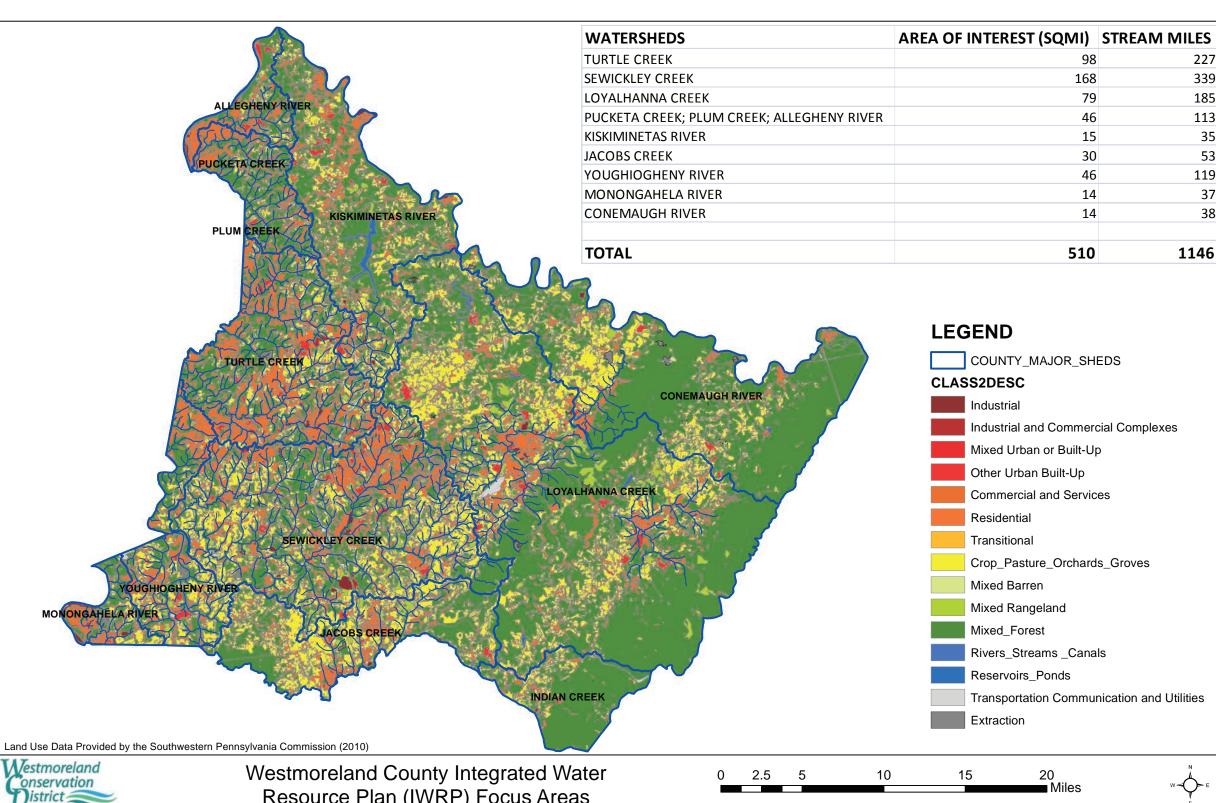

The District adapted to restrictions from the COVID -19 pandemic by hosting virtual or hybrid meetings and producing webinars and videos for our educational programs.

Earthmoving began for the largest non-highway building our staff has reviewed in the past 35 years - disturbing 176 acres in New Stanton Borough

2021

47 municipalities had a new stormwater ordinance in place that was consistent with the Integrated Watershed Resource Plan

Westmoreland Conservation Conservation Through the Years 2020 - 2024

2022

District Manager Greg Phillips and Assistant Manager Tony Quadro retired after a combined 77 years of service to the District. Rob Cronauer appointed as District Manager.

Greg Phillips

The District barn received a major upgrade to the exterior with new siding of local hemlock, high quality structural sheathing panel, and a moisture control barrier

The county's first Agricultural Conservation Assistance Program (ACAP) funds were spent on improvements at the Kitz Farm improving 2,400 feet of stream.

2023

Tony Quadro

Rob Cronauer

The District celebrates its 75th Diamond Anniversary! Why is conservation like a diamond? It's multi-faceted and the benefits are crystal clear!

Many new faces have become part of the District Staff due to retirements, succession and opportunities.

above: An animal stream crossing under construction; right: planting shrubs to help prevent erosion.

2024

The District hosted its first Plein Air Paint Out as part of its 75th Anniversary celebrations. Thirteen artists submitted 37 pieces of art featuring nature and conservation scenes from around our office.

The District was recognized as the PA conservation district trash champion for collecting the most trash (11 tons) in the months of April and May Connie Donovan was inducted into the Hall of Honor for his 26 years of serving as a District board member and for advocating for good farming practices.

