The Redevelopment Authority of the County of Westmoreland (RA) and the Westmoreland County Land Bank (LB) has taken a leadership role to help build healthy and whole communities and reposition our towns by eliminating blight and its influences throughout Westmoreland County. The work is carried out through blight demolition, residential and commercial rehabilitation, acquisition and repurposing of vacant and tax-delinquent properties, accessible and affordable housing, training and education partnerships, historic preservation, and brownfield redevelopment. Working hand in hand with local officials, and like-minded organizations, these efforts will deliver more desirable communities in which to live, work, raise a family and prosper.

"To promote the conservation of the natural resources of the Turtle Creek Watershed by:

- Conducting watershed-related educational and scientific investigations and/or research;*
- Educating individuals, schools, organizations, and communities, to the value of sound conservation to protect natural resources—the basis for safe drinking water, improved flood control, invigorated quality of life, and stable property values;*
- Participating in existing beneficial government or academic programs that enhance watershed protection while advancing multi-municipal cooperation; and*
- Working on a Growing Greener $75,000 project to develop a qualified hydrologic unit plan for Turtle Creek, Allegheny and Westmoreland Counties.*

"The Westmoreland Bird & Nature Club is a natural history organization, serving Westmoreland County and the surrounding areas. The WBNC is primarily an outdoor club averaging about 30 field trips a year for birds, butterflies, flowering plants, dragonflies, damselflies, trees and general ecology. Outings can be hiking, canoeing or cycling in nature. Sometimes impromptu field trips are organized over the internet (as in Twitter or E-mail). In addition, members participate in the Audubon Christmas Bird Count and the Pennsylvania Annual Migration Count in early May. Field trips are sometimes held in conjunction with the Botanical Society of Westmoreland County and The Three Rivers Birding Club, or other such groups. There are three general membership meetings a year including a summer picnic. All meetings are held in the Westmoreland Conservation District barn, 218 Donohoe Road, Greensburg, PA 15601. The "Syrinx" newsletter is published four times a year. The Westmoreland Bird & Nature Club (formerly Westmoreland County Bird Club) formed on February 26, 1981 to promote interest in birds, conservation and to provide field trips primarily in Westmoreland County, PA."
